

Scottsdale
Heritage
Connection

Scottsdale Heritage Connection

SPRING 2019 SALON SERIES

Scottsdale historians and authors Joan Fudala and Doug Sydnor invite you to join them for the Spring 2019 Salon Series highlighting topics of Scottsdale's fascinating history:

Golf in Scottsdale

Historian Joan Fudala presents a photo-rich review of over a century of Scottsdale area golf history from the Ingleside Inn to 1953 Sundown Ranch Golf Course to 1987 TPC Scottsdale Stadium Course.

Thursday, January 10, 6-7 p.m. at Arabian Library

photo courtesy of Scottsdale Historical Society

History of Scottsdale Housing

Architect Doug Sydnor talks Scottsdale housing history from 1890s tents and farm houses, early town residences, Post World War II single family homes to modern day residential developments.

Thursday, February 14, 6-7 p.m. at Civic Center Library

photo courtesy of Scottsdale Public Library

From Health Camps to the CURE Corridor: How Scottsdale Evolved as a Health & Wellness Center

Historian Joan Fudala discusses Scottsdale's evolving renown as a health care destination in a photo presentation featuring local health care providers and the health and wellness movement.

Thursday, March 14, 6-7 p.m. at Appaloosa Library

photo courtesy of Scottsdale Historical Society

Why Scottsdale Looks the Way It Does

Doug Sydnor examines City of Scottsdale programs that encouraged the aesthetics of the special place: banning billboards, landscape, public art installations and others.

Thursday, April 11, 6-7 p.m. at Mustang Library

photo courtesy of Scottsdale Historical Society

All programs are free, and feature photos, videos, oral histories, documents and other historic records from the Scottsdale Public Library's Scottsdale Heritage Connection.

The Scottsdale Heritage Connection is a community collaboration: a window to the past, a celebration of the present and a portal to the future. It combines digital and physical historic resources of the Scottsdale Public Library, the Scottsdale Historical Society and other community organizations.

Browse the Scottsdale Heritage Connection digital collection at: ScottsdaleLibrary.org/historical

SCOTTSDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY
scottsdalelibrary.org • 480-312-READ (7323)

